Goals are important

VOICEOVER:

Sixteen-year-old Joy is gunning for valedictorian.

CUT TO:

Male teen (Daniel) lines up and shoots a soccer ball.

VOICEOVER:

Her 14-year-old brother, Daniel, has his sights set on making the JV soccer team. Nothing can stop them.

CUT TO:

Good-looking older male teen (Hunter) wearing letter jacket, talking on phone.

VOICEOVER:

Except, well, the most popular guy in the school. Hunter offers them each a deal. Not for drugs. Or test answers. But for eternal life . . . on Earth. He guarantees Joy will be valedictorian and Daniel a starter on the team. But, what does he want in return?

TEXT OVERLAY:

Their allegiance forever . . . to his boss.

BEGIN LOW HEART-POUNDING MUSIC.

CUT TO:

Joy and Daniel talking and looking around in darkened woods.

VOICEOVER:

They get it. That would be a hard no. Their answer should send him to his next target. But that's not how it works.

MUSIC INTENSIFIES.

ACTION:

Joy and Daniel start running.

VOICEOVER:

Hunter's relentless. And he's after their friends. Are they willing to fight a demon?

CUT TO:

Two red eyes in the distance.

CUT TO:

Black.
